Say aloha to Ubuntu's new desktop background, the one that you, me, and thousands of other Ubuntu users will stare at for the next six months.

Every new Ubuntu release ships with a new desktop wallpaper (well, almost; Ubuntu 14.10 didn't) and the upcoming release of Ubuntu 19.04 is no exception.

It's something of a design tradition, but it's also practical: distinct desktop wallpapers make it far easier to spot Ubuntu in use in the wild!
