Weekly Roundup

February 28th

This has been a great week of Linux news and releases. We saw lots of goodies, including Kali Linux's first ISO release in 2021 with the latest Xfce 4.16 desktop environment, a new Firefox release, a new Nitrox release, Xfce's apps update for February, and more good things from the upcoming GNOME 40 desktop environment.

If you missed this week's most important Linux news, distro and software releases, you can catch up with what's new in the 9to5Linux Weekly Roundup for February 28th below.
